GEO. M. SNOOK & CO.—DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT.

GEO. M. SNOOK & CO.

Dress Goods Department.

Come, take a stroll through this, our largest and most important department. We'll commence at the Silk Counter. More weaves and colors than we've ever had. All the delicate tints shown in Satins, Surahs and Japanese Silks, a good article of the latter at 50c per yard. New dress shades in Faille and other Silks—sixteen separate and distinct weaves in Black Silks, including the late Moscovite or Chrystal weave. About prices and wear? We deal with the maker direct—this insures LOW prices. The makers we deal with are RELIABLE. It would not pay them to manufacture goods of uncertain quality. It's not a matter of surprise then that our silk trade has grown to such large proportions.—Next we come to Henriettas.—It is particularly of Priestley's Silk Warp Henriettas that we desire to talk about.—They stand at the head for APPEARANCE and WEAR and cost but little more than obscure brands of doubtful merit.—Our All Wool Henriettas have stood the test of nearly eight years.—See our two special leaders at 79 and 98 cents.—Every new color in Henriettas.—Lack of space will not permit of further mention, but we will continue this subject next week.

Ask to be shown the two books of "Paris Fashions," just received.

RETAIL DEPARTMENT.

A. L. RICE & CO., 1130 Main Street.

Our Annual Fall and Winter Opening for the season of 1891 and 1892 will occur on Wednesday of this week, September 30th, on which occasion we will display an elegant collection of Pattern Hats and Bonnets from the leading modistes of New York, Paris and London, together with novel and original creations from our own work room.

The styles embraced in this collection represent the latest fashions of the Paris and London markets, in Round Hats and Bonnets for street, dress, carriage and evening wear, selected with unusual care and with special reference to a cultivated and fastidious taste in millinery of a high order.

An unusual prominence will be given to English Hat Hats, of novel and varied design, which the growing preference for this class of head-wear demands, also medium and large Dress and Evening Hats.

We extend a cordial invitation to the ladies of Wheeling and vicinity to be present on this occasion, and remain

Thriving Chautauqua Class.

The INTELLIGENCER is informed that there has been right along a thriving Chautauqua Literary and Social class at the Zane street M. E. church, which now numbers twenty members, and had ten graduates this year. It has been in existence for four years.

Collision on the C. & P. road.

All trains on the C. & P. road were delayed for several hours Saturday by a freight wreck at Brown's station. Particulars were very scarce, as railroad men are close-mouthed about such matters, but it was learned that an extra freight and a regular freight had some misunderstanding concerning their meeting point and crashed into each other at the above named place. No one was hurt, but a great many cars were derailed and piled up, blocking the track for almost the entire day.

Mission Convention This Week.

A cordial invitation is extended to the ladies of the city and vicinity to be present at the Woman's Home Mission meeting to be held in the First Presbyterian Church, this week.

The meeting will open on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. There will be an afternoon session at 2, and it will close on Wednesday at noon.

The illustrated lecture on Tuesday evening will be of special interest. Rev. Mr. Finks has visited many of the mission stations of "Our Land," and knows whereof he speaks. This entertainment is open to gentlemen as well as ladies, and is equally attractive to both.

In Clerk Hook's Office.

The following transfers of real estate were left for record at Clerk Hook's office on Saturday:

Deed made September 26, 1891, by W. H. Caldwell, trustee, to Louis F. Stifel, for a piece of property on Jacob street. Consideration, $1,400.

Deed made September 19, 1891, by George P. Polmar and wife to Benj. Exley, Sr., for three and one-fourth acres of land in Triadelphia district. Consideration, $200.

A power of attorney from Klieves, Kraft & Co., was also left for record.

Conrad Schuetzner was appointed administrator of the estate of Mary Schuetzner, deceased. Bond, $500; John J. Kennedy, surety.

A marriage license was issued to George Carroll, a native of Pleasant county, aged forty-eight, and Hannah C. Swevers, a native of Pleasant county, aged twenty-four; also, to Vincent Roder, a native of Germany, aged twenty-eight, and May Kaip, a native of Germany, aged twenty-two.

Real Estate and Stock Sale.

One hundred and fifteen shares of stock in the People's Bank, Etina mill, Riverside mill and Belmont mill, belonging to the estate of the late Geo. G. Hannan, were sold at public auction at the north door of the Court House Saturday morning, by Auctioneer W. H. Haller. Quite a number of bidders were present. The bidding was as follows: Fifteen shares Belmont mill stock, par value $200; bid up to $135, and withdrawn. Fifty shares People's Bank, par value $20; sold to George Eckhart for $26.40. Twenty-five shares Etina mill stock, par value $100; sold to Mr. Armstrong, of Martin's Ferry, at $106.75. Twenty-five shares Riverside stock, par value $100; sold to F. Wingerter for $120.75.

Auctioneer Haller put up the Keim property, on Twenty-first street, but it was withdrawn after $3,500 had been bid.

Auctioneer Harvey sold the Sloan property, in the Eighth ward, to Louis F. Stifel for $1,400.

For a family pill, nothing will compare with Dr. A. S. Todd's.

THREE FIRE ALARMS

Yesterday, and all Rung in from the Same Box.

AN ELECTRIC CAR CATCHES FIRE

On Main street while full of People. The Department Called to the Wheeling Bakery Twice—No Serious Damage by any of the Blazes—Accidents in the Department.

Yesterday forenoon an electric motor caught fire on Main street, south of Fourteenth, the waste and oil in the box about the axle becoming ignited from the friction. It sprang up into a lively blaze, and made a great deal of smoke. The passengers were badly frightened, and everybody who saw it was excited. An alarm from box 25, at the corner of Market and Fourteenth streets, called out the department, but its services were not needed. The car was disabled, and had to be pushed to the barn by another.

Just before 6 o'clock last evening another alarm from the same box brought the department to the Wheeling bakery, where an overheated furnace had set fire to some boxes and barrels. The flames were extinguished without the aid of the city apparatus, but the department had not all reached the houses again when another pull of the same box brought it back. The flames had again broken out. The chemical engine put them out in a few seconds.

In dashing up Market street to the fire the Eighth ward reel twisted off the right hind wheel by a sudden turn out of the street car track.

Just before the first alarm yesterday, Billy White, hostler at the Niagara house, was leading his horses, when one kicked him with terrific force, knocking him down, and then trampled him. He is pretty badly injured.

No recall was rung after the third alarm last evening, and the impression prevailed for several hours in remote parts of town that a terrific fire was raging.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT.

Business Transacted by Judge Paull on Saturday.

In the Circuit court, Judge Paull on the bench, Saturday, a number of important matters were considered.

In the cases of the State vs. Temple Washington and Thornton Mightengah, indicted for a misdemeanor in that they were shooting "craps" fines of five dollars and costs were imposed.

In the cases of Fannie Preston and Margory Thatcher, indicted for misdemeanors, there were fines of $30 and costs and imprisonment for one day in jail.

In the case of the American Suit Club people, an order was outlined, imposing fines of $25 and costs and imprisonment for one day in jail, but it was laid aside until to-morrow in order to give the defendants an opportunity to take an appeal to the Supreme Court.

Charles H. Moore v. Patrick D. Carroll, motion to quash sheriff's return overruled.

Sawyer-Mann Electrical Company v. Wheeling Electrical Company; demurrer of defendant overruled.

Greenville Woolen Mills v. Standard Insurance Company; demurrer of defendant to the declaration overruled.

Geo. S. Davis v. M. F. Wood; judgment for plaintiff for $506.51.

Dollar Savings Bank v. Elijah Marbiss; judgment for plaintiff for $423.35.

The taking of testimony in the appeal case of the Wheeling Bridge and Terminal Railway Company v. Isaiah Warren took up the entire day. Arguments will be held to-day.

THE ORDINANCE CARRIES.

The Vote Light and the Necessary three fifths in its Favor.

As was predicted Saturday a very light vote was cast at the election for the new issue of Main street bridge bonds, to bear six per cent interest. The total vote of the city, by wards was as follows:

Wards.	For.	Against.	Total.
First	87	17	104
Second	303	8	311
Third	175	35	210
Fourth	112	19	131
Fifth	137	12	149
Sixth	183	16	199
Seventh	63	10	73
Eighth	62	45	107
Total	852	162	1,014

The total vote is but little more than one-eighth the vote of the city. The Second ward departed from the usual custom by having two lady clerks. They were Misses Jennie Bosley and Josephine Burns.

THE HUB. THOUGHTS The Hub.

For Thinkers and Observers.

Full Guarantee.

Do you ever get a little mixed by reading advertisements? Strange if you don't! Two or three or half a dozen stores can't each have the "best" or "cheapest" of the same thing. Must be mistakes somewhere. It doesn't follow that a merchant is deliberately lying to you when he publishes a wrong statement like that. It may be attributable to ignorance or false reasoning. Perhaps he puts a meagre profit on his COST PRICE and assumes that no other dealer will get below him—not a safe thing to do. Some one else may buy lower than he or sell for cost or less. It isn't safe for an ordinary dealer to make a positive statement in such matters. It isn't wise. A confiding customer in that way may be deceived—once or twice, but not often. A sound, healthy business can't be built on such a basis—either of
